REPORT.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACIOUS MAJESTY,

1. We, the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests for Ireland, humbly submit to your Majesty this our Forty-first Annual Report.

Within the twelve months which have elapsed since our last report, no further vacancies on the Board have occurred. The vacancy created by the death of Mr. Serjeant Robinson, mentioned in our last Report, has been filled up by the appointment of the Right Honorable the Vice-Chancellor.

2. Since our last Report 33 meetings have been summoned, at all but two of which a quorum attended. We have made 388 orders in various matters affecting charities and charity property, besides providing for the regular issue of the sums payable to the charities under our control.

3. Of the amount of our solicitor's costs for the past year, £20 4s. 8d. only, is chargeable upon the Vote as irrecoverable, the remainder being provided for out of the various charity funds.

4. The Exchequer continues to receive from us £41 18s. 4d., being the annual dividend on an old endowment from private sources placed in the hands of the late Board in 1815, "to assist them in recovering embezzled charities." This is not required for that purpose so long as costs and expenses incurred, and not otherwise realized, are paid out of the Parliamentary vote. For the last ten years the sums so remitted by us to the Exchequer have exceeded those paid to us to defray irrecoverable costs; the former being £419 3s. 4d., the latter £127 7s. 7d.

5. The aggregate amounts held by us on the 1st of January, 1866, were as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
New 3 per Cent. Stock, . . . . .	372,619	10	2
Consols, . . . . .	134,139	0	10
Cash, . . . . .	2,012	10	3
Miscellaneous Securities, . . . . .	15,607	8	6

In addition, we receive rents and annuities of the yearly value of £2,933 4s. 5d.

6. Funds for various charitable purposes, to the number of 261, have been lodged with us, from time to time, since the "Charitable Donations and Bequests Act (Ireland) 1867" enabled Trustees to make such voluntary transfers.

The entire amount so received since 1867 is—

	£	s.	d.
New 3 per Cent. Stock, . . . . .	122,335	15	4
Consols, . . . . .	30,181	15	1
Cash, . . . . .	62,131	0	10
Miscellaneous, . . . . .	12,359	13	7

A detailed list for each of the past four years will be found in the third schedule.

In the last year, taken separately, these amounted to:—

	£	s.	d.
New 3 per Cent. Stock, . . . . .	5,393	1	4
Consols, . . . . .	42	4	3
Cash, . . . . .	1,424	0	11

During the past year sums have been deposited with us for various charitable purposes, amongst others for Belleville Presbyterian Church and School—Belfast Lancasterian School—Wadding's Almshouse, Carrick-on-Suir—Clothing for the Boys and Girls Poor Schools, Lisburn—the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers' Society—the Poor of Castlebar, Kiltanet, Kilgiffin, and Dromore—Poor Servants in St. John's House of Rest, Merion—Protestant Religious Societies—Castlereagh Schools.

On the 14th August, 1885, the Educational Endowments (Ireland) Act came into force. Under the 9th section of that Act any governing body having an endowment not educational under the meaning of the Act, if there are no persons entitled to benefit by it, or if its purposes have failed or become obsolete or useless, or are otherwise sufficiently provided for or insignificant compared with the magnitude of the endowment, or not substantially beneficial to the persons for whom it was intended, or where it is found to be impracticable to carry out the intentions of the founders, is empowered to intimate in writing to the Commissioners appointed by this Act, its assent to the endowment being deemed to be an educational endowment, and the Commissioners are thereby empowered to deal with such endowment as if it were educational. Accordingly it became the duty of this Board to inquire whether any of the funds vested in them could be considered to be included within any of these categories, and after careful investigation they came to the conclusion that section 9 of the above Act did not apply to any of the funds vested in them.

Under the 10th section of the Act, it is provided that endowments for apprenticeship fees, or for marriage portions, or for the maintenance, nurture, or clothing, or otherwise for the benefit of poor children or young persons, shall be deemed to be and may be dealt with as educational endowments. We have therefore furnished to the Commissioners appointed under the Act, a schedule of all endowments under our control appearing to come within that section.

By the 17th section provision is made for the periodical audit of the accounts of all educational endowments for which schemes are provided. It is satisfactory to observe that the Government have admitted the necessity of providing such an audit, and on this subject we refer to the following passage from our Report of last year:—

- "The question of providing and securing a proper audit of charity accounts is one of great importance, and is at present in a very unsatisfactory condition.
 "In many schemes framed by the Court of Chancery, for example, in the Charities of Lord Mayne, Peter Bernard, and others, provision is made for an annual audit of the accounts by persons appointed by us and wholly unconnected with the Charities.
 "The effect is that the accounts of these charities are now in a very satisfactory state. We are of opinion that a similar provision should be made general and compulsory, and that all charity accounts should be submitted for audit to an officer appointed by us for the purpose, thus applying to them the principles which have been found so useful in reference to the accounts of Poor Law Guardians, Grand Jurors, and other public bodies."

Under the 18th section provision is made for the alteration of schemes from time to time by this Board. By the operation of this section as well as of others in this Act the work in this office will be substantially increased.

The 37th section of the Act authorizes us, upon the application of parties therein mentioned to require governing bodies to give effect to the provisions of schemes made under the Act, and in case they should not comply with such requisition to apply to the High Court to compel them to do so. Under this section we may also expect an increase of business in the department.

We beg to call attention to the following extracts from our Report for last year:—

- "It appears to us that in the interests of charity property, the same power which is exercised so frequently, and with such signal advantage, by the Charity Commissioners of England and Wales, of appointing Trustees of charity property, ought to be conferred on us."
- "We are of opinion . . . that all charity accounts should be submitted for audit to an officer appointed by us for the purpose, thus applying to them the principles which have been found so useful in reference to the accounts of Poor Law Guardians, Grand Jurors, and other public bodies."

And in our Report for 1883 we suggested that the Court of Chancery should have power, of its own motion, to direct funds intended for charitable purposes to be transferred to this Board whenever the exercise of such a power would operate for the protection of the funds, by diminishing the necessity of costly applications to the Court for the appointment of new Trustees, or to provide for the changes necessarily recurring in the persons directed to receive and administer the incomes.

In accordance with the practice of our previous Reports, and in order to guide Executors and others in the discharge of their duties we desire to point out that all charitable bequests must be published in local newspapers in accordance with the provisions of 30 & 31 Vic., cap. 54, sec. 19. But where the charity is of small amount, or where the circumstances appear to warrant it, we have entrusted to our Secretaries the discretion of exempting from advertisement, upon their satisfying themselves that the bequests have been paid. As much misapprehension appears to prevail with regard to the liability of charitable bequests to the payment of legacy duty, we beg to point out that by the 38th section of the 5th and 6th years of your Majesty's reign, cap. 82, bequests for purposes merely charitable in Ireland are exempt from duty. They must, however, be for purposes exclusively charitable and not for purposes or objects merely pious. As regards purposes merely charitable, in order to exempt even these from duty, there must either be an obligation imposed by the Will that the bequests shall be applied in Ireland, and not elsewhere, or it must be clearly deducible from the language of the Will that they are to be applied in Ireland, and that all discretion to expend them elsewhere is taken away. The rates of duty, when chargeable, is in all cases 10 per cent.

During the past year we have frequently exercised powers of sanctioning beneficial leases of charity property which were not authorized or permitted by the trust. During the same period we have had occasion to exercise our powers of sanctioning the compromise of claims, thereby saving the charity funds from the heavy costs to which they would have been otherwise subjected.

Under the sections of our Acts of Parliament which empower us, in cases where it has become unlawful or impracticable to apply charitable donations and bequests according to the intentions of the founders—to frame schemes, or to apply by petition to the Court of Chancery proposing schemes, for their application—we have had occasion to exercise our powers in the following charities:—

Elizabeth Streat Coulson's Bequest, Barbara Tuthill's Bequest, Rev. J. E. Tallon's Bequest, Newry Reformatory, John Cheevers, Anne Hall.

In the General Orphan Home, Dublin—Illerton School (Parson Perse's Charity)—Castlereagh School—Templemoyle Agricultural School (Anne Hall's Charity), being of opinion that the Commissioners of Educational Endowments could deal more satisfactorily with these charities, we have referred the cases to that body to frame schemes.

Under the Act 44 & 45 Vic., c. 65, being an Act to facilitate leases of land for the erection thereon of schools and buildings for the promotion of public education in Ireland, special powers were given to trustees enabling them to make leases at nominal rents of land as sites for schools, subject to our approval. Only three applications for such approval have been made to us up to the present time, all of which have been granted.

Our charity accounts for the year ended 31st December, 1884, were duly audited and declared correct by the auditor appointed for that purpose by the Local Government Board. The accounts for the year ended December 31st, 1885, have been prepared and submitted for audit.

Accounts of the sum voted by Parliament have been regularly furnished by us, in accordance with the forms adopted under the direction of the Treasury, and the provisions of the "Exchequer and Audit Departments Acts, 1866;" and our Appropriation Account for the year ending 31st March, 1885, has been certified to be correct by the Auditor-General of Public Accounts.

All which we submit as our Report, and in testimony thereof we have caused our Corporate Seal to be hereto affixed this 7th day of July, 1886.
